

Where Do the Candidates Stand on Life?

Pete Coors

U.S. Senate

Ken Salazar

Partial-Birth Abortion

Pete Coors supports the Partial-Birth Abortion Ban Act that President Bush signed into law.

Ken Salazar opposes the Partial-Birth Abortion Ban Act that President Bush signed into law.

The partial-birth abortion procedure -- used from the fifth month on -- involves pulling a living baby feet-first out of the womb, except for the head, puncturing the skull, and suctioning out the brain. The great majority of partial-birth abortions are performed on healthy babies and healthy mothers, for entirely non-medical reasons.

Abortion on Demand

Pete Coors opposes the 1973 Supreme Court decision that legalized abortion on demand and he supports legal protection for unborn children.

Ken Salazar supports the 1973 Supreme Court decision that legalized abortion on demand.

Ken Salazar received $1000 in campaign contributions from Warren Hern, an abortionist known for developing abortion methods used in the fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth months of pregnancy.

Supreme Court Justices

Pete Coors will support President Bush's judicial nominees.

Ken Salazar would not back a Supreme Court justice who was opposed to Roe v. Wade, the Supreme Court decision that legalized abortion on demand for any reason, even as a method of birth control.

Statements on Life

Pete Coors declared, "I have a fundamental belief in the sanctity of human life. I am opposed to abortion."

Ken Salazar stated, "I believe the decision to have an abortion should be between a woman and her God."
