

Dedicated NRLC Volunteer Dies Godspeed to an Old and Honored Friend

Jeremy Jackson passed away at the age of 77 after complications following a stroke and pneumonia. Jerry was a regular weekly volunteer in the Outreach Department at National Right to Life for more than 10 years. His energy and dedication was an inspiration to everyone who had the honor of knowing him.

His great love and passion for the pro-life issue encouraged and motivated many.

On a weekly basis, Jerry was responsible for reading and clipping articles from various publications, copying them and distributing them to the office staff. Jerry also assisted in copying and collating brochures and flyers.

His absence will be greatly missed.

Jerry is survived by his wife Sarah, sons; Peter, Thomas, and Hugh, and grandchildren; Nathaniel, Andrew, Alison, and Madison.
