

Sample Sermon Inspiration Notes

As followers of Christ, we are called to uphold the dignity and value of every human being, from conception to natural death. Let us delve into the Scriptures to understand God's perspective on the precious gift of life.

The Divine Creation and Knowledge of Life:

Let us begin with Jeremiah 1:5: "Before I formed you in the womb I knew you, before you were born I set you apart; I appointed you as a prophet to the nations."

This verse reveals that God's relationship with us begins long before our physical existence. He intimately knows each one of us and has a unique purpose for our lives. This profound truth underscores the intrinsic value of every human life. Each person is crafted with divine intention and love, deserving of respect and protection.

The Wonder of Our Creation:

Psalms 139:13-14 says, "For you created my inmost being; you knit me together in my mother's womb. I praise you because I am fearfully and wonderfully made; your works are wonderful, I know that full well."

Here, we see the delicate and intentional process of our formation. God is the master weaver, intricately designing each person. Every heartbeat, every breath is a testament to His handiwork. Recognizing this should compel us to cherish and safeguard all lives, especially the most vulnerable among us—the unborn.

Choosing Life:

Deuteronomy 30:19 declares, "This day I call the heavens and the earth as witnesses against you that I have set before you life and death, blessings and curses. Now choose life, so that you and your children may live."

God presents us with a choice: life or death, blessings or curses. As believers, our choice must always be for life. This command is not just for our benefit but for future generations. By choosing life, we align ourselves with God's will and ensure His blessings for our families and communities.

Defending the Defenseless:

Proverbs 31:8 urges us, "Speak up for those who cannot speak for themselves, for the rights of all who are destitute."

Our faith calls us to be advocates for the voiceless. The unborn, unable to defend themselves, rely on us to champion their cause. We must raise our voices against the injustice of abortion and protect those who cannot protect themselves. This is a divine mandate, a reflection of God's justice and mercy.

Jesus' Love for Children:

Matthew 18:10 reminds us, "See that you do not despise one of these little ones. For I tell you that their angels in heaven always see the face of my Father in heaven."

Jesus holds children in the highest regard, emphasizing their purity and worth. As His followers, we must reflect this love and protection towards all children, born and unborn. Every child is a reflection of God's love and should be treated with the utmost care and dignity.

Our faith is rooted in the belief that every life is a sacred gift from God. From the moment of conception, each person is known, loved, and purposed by our Creator. Let us carry with us a renewed commitment to defend the sanctity of life in all its forms.

May we be bold in our advocacy, compassionate in our actions, and unwavering in our faith. Let us pray for the strength and wisdom to uphold these divine truths and be true ambassadors of God's love and justice in the world.
